
Right: warm value minus max(new cold value, same initial greedy). Negative gains are retained.
Both comparisons use paired instances and equal solver allowances; setup is reported separately.